GUARDS AND CAVALRY WIN

(From Monday's Advertiser.)

In the two games at the league park yesterday afternoon the Fifth Cavalry and N. G. H. both came out ahead very easily. The boys from Lelehu put it over the slabs from Fort Shafter in the first game by 7 to 2, and the Guards handed it to the Marines by 11 to 1.

There was a large and enthusiastic crowd present, and the two games were thoroughly enjoyed by the spectators. Sergeant Harry's forecast that no Marine would reach second base was not fulfilled, but very nearly so, as the score by which the twice-year boys was large enough to satisfy anybody.

The next game in the Military League will be played on Wednesday at Aala Park, and will be between the Marines and Fort Shafter.

The following were the official scores:

THE SICKLY SEASON IN BURMA.

One of the most effective remedies known for diarrhoea and bowel complaint is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and every home should be supplied with it during the warm weather. Mr. H. J. D. Wilkinson, proprietor of the Upper Burma Gazette, Mandalay, says: "Ever since I first tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, a supply of it has always been in my house and is always in demand during the sickly season." This medicine is for sale by all dealers, Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., agents for Hawaii.

The 5th Cavalry band gave an enjoyable concert from 7 to 9 o'clock last evening at Camp Vey, where the marine battalion is stationed. The band played in the mess hall and the concert was listened to with much pleasure by most of the marines and many townfolk. This is the first time a concert has been given at the camp, and the courtesy of Colonel Schuyler of the 5th Cavalry in sending the band there was much appreciated.

FAST BALL FOR OPENING OF INTERSCHOLASTIC LEAGUE

Standing of the Interscholastic League.

	P.	W.	Lo.
Punahoa	1	1	1
Kamehameha	1	1	1
High School	1	0	0
St. Louis	1	0	0

Yesterday's Results.

Kams, 5; High School, 4; (ten innings).

Punahoa, 7; St. Louis, 1.

There was but a small crowd of spectators out yesterday afternoon to witness the first baseball games for blood ever played on Alexander field and to watch the best all-round class of ball played in the interscholastic league yet.

Both games were well worth watching and there were many points of interest to be picked out in the playing of all four teams. The first game was the most interesting of the two in that it was so close. It was only after an extra inning that the Kams finally won out after the High School had been in the lead all the way down the line.

As a matter of fact the High School's playing was a matter of great surprise as much to their friends as to spectators of the other teams. McCandless pitched a very handy game and, had he had just a trifle more condition, there is little doubt that the Kams would not have scored in the last inning and won out with another run in the extra inning.

Score Twice In Same Way.

A very interesting feature of the first game was that the Kams scored in the third and fifth innings in almost identical ways. In each case Kamehameha made his base and was sent home by Bartels who failed to score both times.

Espinda, the King of Spain, was in fine shape for the St. Louis team. He pitched an almost perfect game and, had he only had proper backing in the early part of the game, the Pins would have had no such easy task to win as they did. The more things went against the Saints, the cooler Espinda grew and the harder he pitched.

After the fifth inning, when it seemed as though the Oahu slabs were going to pile up a large score, Espinda began to show his best form and he allowed only one hit from that time on. Not only did he twirl a fine game but he was the hero of his team by scoring the one run that saved the upsetting of the whitewash bucket.

Espinda Stops Whitewash.

The run made in the last inning by Espinda created great delight among the St. Louis rooters. Pedro, who played on the famous Waialua team that once did things to the "Tisers," performed a dance of delight and stated loudly that all the whitewash had been left in Waialua.

Lota and Chi Bui made a very impressive battery for the Oahu team. The former was in excellent form and pitched hard as well as using a bunch of new curves. The team was in very good shape and it was merely a little carelessness that allowed the royal gentleman from Spain to romp home in the last inning.

The First Game.

The first two innings went with a great snap and go and it could be seen that it was going to be a closely contested game. The fielders avoided making any errors and both pitchers were getting them over the plate in great style.

The Kams made their first score in the second half of the third inning. Kamehameha, who by the way scored twice without a hit, had reached third by the error and burglar route when Bartels came up to bat. The latter swatted out a neat bingle and Kamehameha romped. Bartels reached second as the fielder tried to send the ball to the plate in time, but failed.

McKenzie was the next up and he hit a hard one that was caught by Rice. It was a very clever catch, and the quick way in which Bill sent it to Mark at third and got Bartels out was a very notable feat.

In the fourth inning the High School put themselves ahead by scoring two runs. Rice singled and stole to second and was followed by Kamehameha who walked. Then Henry Chillingworth reached the base with a fine single to right field that scored Rice and took him to second while they were trying to douse Marucci at third. They finally succeeded in getting the latter out at the plate but Henry came in on Kamehameha's error and the score was 2 to 1 in favor of the school.

In the fifth inning the Kams tied the score by a repetition of their play in the third inning. Kamehameha was all ready on third for the big doings, and romped in on what was not technically a bingle by Bartel, but was such a hot one that it seemed hard on the fielder to dock him with an error.

Rice was the hero of the sixth inning. He started with a clean hit to center field, stole second, stole third, and finally stole home. This run again put the High School ahead. But the Kams tied again in the second half of that same inning. Josiah reached third with a bingle, a steal and an error, and then Akana came up and singled him in.

In the seventh the school drew ahead again by scoring one. Andrews binged and stole, and reached third on Kaulukou's funeral. McCandless popped out, but Kamehameha missed a catch and Andrews romped.

There was no scoring in the eighth, although the Kams made a hit. In the ninth the Kams tied the score once again by putting in that one run. Millikan took a hit-by-ball pass to first and then did the safe-breaking act twice. Singly stowed away for third and ready for a quick run. Millikan had little difficulty in beating Akana, a hunt to the plate.

This tied the score once again, and so another inning was necessary. Kaulukou, McCandless and Norton went out, one, two, three, in the first half of the tenth inning, and then the Kams came along with a great determination to put on the finishing touch. They did so with such energy that two runs were scored before the play was over.

McIntyre sent out a high one that Kaulukou fumbled, and reached second on B. Bartels was safe at first, but McIntyre went out at third. Then Mackenzie beat his punt to pitcher and Kamehameha was safe on pitcher's error. This filled the bases with one man gone. Up came Josiah with a fine little bingle, and there was much romping. The arrival of Bartels being all that was necessary to win a very keen game.
